The Betrayal

Instagram launch pack

What to post, in what order, and the words to go with each. Every image is in this folder at Instagram's full size (1440 pixels wide).

> Sizes: every feed image comes in two shapes. `1-feed-4x5` is portrait and takes up more of the screen, so use it unless you prefer square. `1-feed-1x1` is square. Pick one shape per post: a carousel must use the same shape for every slide. Stories are 9:16, the full phone screen.

> The order: set up the profile → feed post 1 → stories 1, 2, 3 on the same day → feed post 2 a day or two later.

Before you post: set up the profile

Profile picture	`profile-picture.png`. Instagram crops it to a circle; the crest is sized to fit.

Feed post 1: the launch post

Image	`post-1.png` (one image), from `1-feed-4x5` or `1-feed-1x1`
Caption	Everyone at the table swears an oath. A few of them don't mean it. The Betrayal is a party game for 8 to 24 people, played on your own phones. Each of you gets a secret role. A few of you are Forsworn, quietly working against everyone else, and the rest of the table has one evening to find them. Book a Table for £10 at thebetrayal.co.uk (link in bio).

Alt text	The Betrayal crest above a TV showing an exile being revealed, and a phone showing a secret Forsworn role card.
When	First, on launch day. An evening post (around 7 to 9pm) does best for party content.

Feed post 2: how a night works (carousel)

Images	`post-2-slide-1.png` to `post-2-slide-8.png`, in number order, as one post, all from the same folder
Caption	How a night of The Betrayal works, from the first scan to the last reveal. Swipe through. Everyone plays on their own phone and the game runs itself, so all you need is your friends and a prize worth lying for. Save this for your next party. thebetrayal.co.uk (link in bio) #partygames #gamesnight #socialdeduction #murdermysteryparty #partyideas #whodunnit #hostingideas #birthdayideas #mafiagame #werewolfgame #henpartyideas #christmaspartyideas
Alt text	Eight slides walking through a game of The Betrayal, with real screens from the TV and the phones: joining, the Oath, the Trials, the Reckoning, night, the end, and the price.
When	A day or two after post 1. Pin both posts to the top of your profile (tap ⋯ on the post, then Pin to your profile).

Hashtags

Use	Each caption already ends with twelve. Keep the first five first: if Instagram limits how many you can add, keep those.
By season	Swap in #halloweenparty (October), #christmasparty and #officechristmasparty (November and December), #newyearseve (late December).
By occasion	#henparty #stagdo #birthdayparty #housewarming #uniparty #familygamesnight
Avoid	Other brands' names, above all TV shows such as The Traitors, and other games' trade marks (Among Us, Cluedo). The Betrayal isn't connected to any of them, and the tags invite takedowns.

Stories, in order

Story 1	`2-stories/story-1.png`. Add a poll sticker in the space below the picture: "Could you lie to your friends all night?" Yes / Absolutely not.
Story 2	`2-stories/story-2.png`. No stickers needed.
Story 3	`2-stories/story-3.png`. Add a link sticker to https://thebetrayal.co.uk in the space between the web address and the candles.
Keep them	After 24 hours, save all three to a Highlight called "How it works" so new visitors can find them.
